

Dual Credit English

Summer Reading Assignment (2024-2025)

Welcome to Dual Credit English! I am excited to challenge and learn from each other this year. This is a writing-centered course that aims to develop the written communication skills that are foundational to your college experience and vital to functioning successfully in contemporary society.

I hope you find the summer reading enjoyable and thought provoking as it will introduce you to the type of reading and expectations you will experience this year. It is vital and required that you complete all parts of the summer reading assignment. Your assignment will be submitted to Turnitin at the beginning of class on the first day of school. Keep in mind that I DO NOT accept late work.

If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to me. I hope you have a great summer!

ASSIGNMENT

First, please purchase and read a copy of The Reason for God by Timothy Keller (ISBN: 978-1594483493).

While reading The Reason for God by Timothy Keller, you are required to fill out the attached guided annotation chart. You will type and submit a digital copy of this chart to Turnitin on the first day of school. I will NOT accept a physical copy.

Think of annotating in terms of having a conversation with the author in real time. It improves your understanding, increases what you remember, and prepares you to participate in classroom discussion. The guided annotation chart will be worth 25 points in your assignment category.

In addition to annotating the text, you will have a timed writing over The Reason for God by Timothy Keller within the first two weeks of school. We will discuss the exact date on the first day of school. The timed writing will be worth 25 points in your assignment category.
